LAST MEETING:

Members of the Exchange Club of North Jackson and many welcomed guests met on Monday, May 5, 2008, at the Western Sizzlin to honor the Trooper of the Year for Troop C and to present awards to three students for their achievements during the school year. Angela Butler welcomed everyone, and Ken Sullivan gave the invocation. Ralph Brown led us in reciting the Pledge of Allegiance. Then we enjoyed the buffet meal.

Angela called on James Gould, chairman of the committee, for the presentation of the Trooper Award. Master Sergeant Mike Holmes told of some of the accomplishments of the recipient, Trooper 1st Class Xavier Carr, who came forward with a round of applause to accept the plaque. Accompanying Trooper Carr at the meeting were his father, Clifford Harris, and Master Sergeant Calvin Ousby,

Sr. Our congratulations to Trooper Carr and many thanks for his service to the citizens of Mississippi.

Marilyn McGregor of New Summit School then told of some of the activities of the A.C.E. Award winner, Caitlyn Rogers. Caitlyn, a senior, has served on the Government Council at New Summit and will attend Holmes Community College next year. She came forward to accept her award of excellence. Guests attending with Caitlyn were her parents, Bob and Sonji Rogers, and her sister, Elizabeth.

The next presentations were for the two Youth of the Year Awards, Blake Waltman of the University Christian School and Corey Gully of Louisville High School. The competition for these awards included writing an essay on Americanism as well as being an exemplary student at their school. Both Blake and Corey are seniors.

Angela called on Blake to come forward to receive his well-deserved award. Accompanying him to the meeting were his parents, Marty and Lisa Waltman.

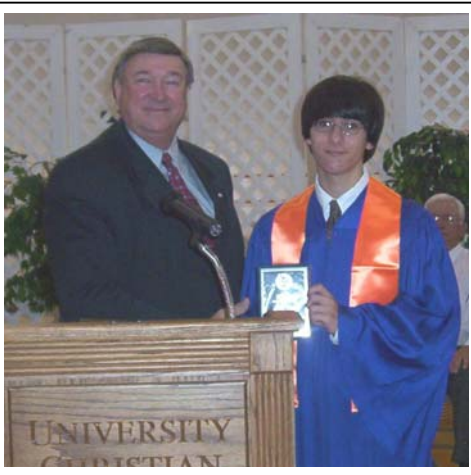

Diane Sullivan then introduced Corey, representing the Louisville Exchange Club, and presented him with his award. Accompanying him was his mother, Teresa Kemp. All were greeted with warm applause.

We commend these students for their good work and wish them much success in their future studies.

We dismissed with our motto, "Unity for Service."
